

A DECADE-BY-DECADE LOOK
AT TEN OF AMERICA'S MOST SENSATIONAL CRIMES

TRIALS
OF THE CENTURY

MARK J. PHILLIPS & ARYN Z. PHILLIPS

"For trial junkies—and who isn't?—these riveting accounts of ten 'trials of the century,' one from each decade, are a must-read. The stories tell us as much about the history of each decade as they do about the trials themselves."

ALAN DERSHOWITZ

Author of Taking the Stand: My Life in the Law

"Authors Mark J. Phillips and Aryn Z. Phillips (father/daughter) unite their obvious skills as attorney and sociologist respectively as they present ten of the nation's most infamous criminal trials. Each of these trials in its own day and time was labeled by the press as 'the trial of the century.' The individual case studies are fascinating, but of greater value is how the authors reveal the hyperbolic role the press played in influencing the verdict in each of these cases, the media often attempting to replace the actual seated jurors by making sensational demands for 'front-page justice.' An informative and mesmerizing read. I highly recommend it."

STEVE HODEL

New York Times–bestselling true-crime author of Black Dahlia Avenger

"Riveting accounts of the ten most fascinating trials of the twentieth century will keep pages turning compulsively."

JOSEPH WAMBAUGH

Bestselling author of The Onion Field
